MACROECONOMY

PBoC Injected CNY 600 Bn via MLF to Support Liquidity

PBoC conducted CNY 600 bn 1-year Medium-Term Lending Facility (MLF) on Aug-25, offsetting CNY 300 bn maturing and resulting in a net injection of CNY 300 bn; the sixth consecutive month of higher rollovers, in line with market expectations. MLF, a key policy tool, lowers banks' mid-term funding costs to encourage credit supply and reduce financing costs for the real economy. (央视网)

RMB Strengthens to New High, May Return to 6-per-USD Range

On Aug-25, the RMB central parity rose 160 bps to 7.1161/USD, its strongest since Nov-24, with both onshore and offshore rates briefly recovering the 7.15 level. The move followed Fed Chair Powell's Jackson Hole remarks hinting at possible rate cuts in coming months, which weakened the USD index (-0.94% on Aug-22). Analysts note Fed easing could further support RMB appreciation by reducing external pressure and attracting foreign inflows. With China's stable macro policy and resilient markets, RMB is expected to remain firm, with Sept seen as a key window for further gains. (北京商报)

Mainland & Global Funds Intensify Buying in Hong Kong Stocks

Hong Kong stocks have surged in 2025, with foreign investors driving over 40% of IPO proceeds and major funds like Norway's SWF and BlackRock increasing stakes in leading firms. Mainland inflows via Stock Connect reached HKD 958.9 bn YTD, already above 2024, supported by insurers adding H-shares and long-term funds favoring high-dividend blue chips. (证券日报)

INDUSTRY

Indonesia to End BEV Import Incentives by Dec-25

The Govt. will end BEV import incentives on 31 Dec-25, requiring automakers to begin local production under a 1:1 commitment from 01 Jan-26, with TKDN targets set at 40% in 2026, 60% in 2027, and 80% by 2030; while six automakers have joined the program (IDR 15 tn planned investment, 305k-unit capacity), Gaikindo and academics warned that CBU imports risk hurting local assemblers and provide limited economic value, calling for consistent policy and gradual transition, potentially via hybrids. (Kontan)

Indonesia Extended 100% VAT Incentives on Housing Purchases Until Dec-25

The Govt. extended the 100% VAT exemption on the purchase of landed houses and apartments priced up to IDR 2 bn until 31 Dec-25 (PMK No. 60/2025), after initially planning to cut it to 50% post-Jun-25. The incentive, applicable only to first-hand sales by developers and limited to one buyer per unit, aims to support economic growth and housing development programs, including the 3 mn housing target. (Bloomberg Technoz)

Indonesia Scraps Coal Pricing Rules After Buyer Pushback

The Govt. revoked the Mar-25 regulation mandating coal/mineral sales at state-set benchmarks, via a 08 Aug-25 decree, letting miners sell below Harga Patokan Mineral and Batubara; royalties/taxes still pegged to the benchmarks. The reversal follows plunging coal exports and buyer backlash —traders shunned "unfair" prices, shifted away from the reference index, and PT Aneka Tambang halted ferronickel/bauxite sales—amid a >70 % collapse in global coal prices since end-22, underscoring Indonesia's eroding leverage in an oversupplied market.
